

Kerry Pulliam M.D.

Born: Los Angeles, CA

Raised: Hood River, OR

Schooling and degree: Amherst College - BA Theater and Dance 2001
 University of Wisconsin - Doctor of Medicine (M.D.) 2007
 Providence Family Medicine - Portland OR - Residency 2010

Dr. Pulliam is a Family practice and Obstetrics provider, interested in an integrative and holistic approach to health. In her spare time, she enjoys dance, yoga, hiking, biking, rummaging at thrift stores and spending time with her husband and devoted cat, Ranger.

“I think the most important part of my job is helping people better understand their bodies and their health. I really enjoy working with patients and their families to come up with tools to maintain health throughout their lifetime.”